Frequently Asked Questions:

What training is required?

Mandatory 3-hour training for election judges is provided before each Primary and General Election.

What are my duties on Election Day?

*You must arrive at the polling place at 5:30 am and assist with the opening of the polling place. You may be asked to help set up the night before.

*Polls open at 7:00 am and close at 8:00 pm. If voters are in line prior to closing, they will be allowed to vote.

*You must assist with tasks as directed by the Chief Judges and remain at the polling place until they dismiss you.

Where will I be working?

Whenever possible, election judges are assigned to their “home” polling place. If there are no vacancies at your home polling place, you may be assigned to a nearby precinct. You must have reliable transportation, and be prepared to work at your polling place all day. Election Judges are not permitted to leave the polling place, whatsoever; please plan accordingly.

What will I get paid and when?

Election Judges can normally expect to receive their pay 4 to 6 weeks after each Election, and are paid per Election:

Chief	$225.00
Check-In	$175.00
Floor	$175.00
Provisional	$175.00
Scanner	$175.00
Alternate*	$50.00
Training	$25.00

*An Alternate Judge is basically on “stand by”, or “on call”, up until, and including, Election Day.
